Report from Primary Care Commissioning Committee (PCCC) Meeting held in Public on 18 November 2021

Governing Body meeting

13 January 2022

1. Introduction

The Primary Care Commissioning Committee (PCCC) met in public on 18 November 2021 and the following key messages to Governing Body were agreed.

2. Key Messages

- The Committee noted that a proposal to develop a local GP retention plan to support GPs returning to work following long term sickness absence or with long COVID had to be deferred but would be presented to the Committee for virtual agreement. The Committee considered that this was an important development in retaining GPs in Sheffield.
- The Committee noted the progress with winter pressures support to practices.

3. Recommendation

The Governing Body is asked to note the key messages set out above.
