

Enrichment for the Elderly Dementia Star awards

Each Dementia Star award involves attending a 2-hour interactive and experiential training session, delivered by Enrichment for the Elderly. These bite-sized chunks allow delegates to learn at their own pace and make the sessions more able to be fit into a busy training calendar. The awards are designed to follow on to each other after each delegate has attended a dementia friends information session.

Enrichment for the Elderly Bronze Dementia Star

This person;

- Recognises how dementia affects the brain.
- Understands the impact dementia can have on communication
- Recognises the importance of changes in memory
- Can see the changes they can make to support someone living with Dementia.

Enrichment for the Elderly Silver Dementia Star

This person;

- Recognises the label of dementia and how it can affect someone
- Understands the impact dementia has on the senses
- Understands the impact dementia may have on behaviour
- Can see the changes they can make to support someone living with Dementia

Enrichment for the Elderly Gold Dementia Star

This person;

- Readily implements understanding
- Recognises the different types of dementia
- Includes people living with Dementia in decision making and engagement
- Can see the changes they can make to support someone living with Dementia